MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Revelation of CIA Affiliation of [REDACTED]

25X1

1. [REDACTED], who had been attending the hearings of the Joint Economic Committee of Congress, reported to [REDACTED] on the afternoon of 11 December 1962 that [REDACTED] in making some derogatory comments regarding testimony of Allen Dulles two or three years ago, also stated both orally and in writing that the testimony of [REDACTED] who are employed by the CIA, might also be incorrect. [REDACTED] of the Legislative Counsel's Office informed me later on 11 December that Mr. Johnson, the Executive Director of the Committee, conferred with [REDACTED] asking why he said what he did and [REDACTED] responded that he felt that it was improper for the affiliation of these authors to be withheld and decided to do something about it. In other words, his act was premeditated.

2. Shortly after [REDACTED] report, Leon Herman informed Mr. Allen that Mr. Johnson had contacted the representatives of the three major wire services and that they had assured him they would not mention in print the affiliation of [REDACTED]. This development was immediately reported to [REDACTED] who then called Mr. Johnson to thank him for the action taken. It was at that time that Mr. Johnson informed [REDACTED] attitude and also expressed the deep appreciation of the Committee for the assistance that the Agency had given in providing the reports.
